Headline:
Warm sunshine on Sunday. North Sea haar.

This Evening and Tonight:
Mainly dry with any isolated showers soon dying out this evening. Some bright or sunny spells to end the day, but low cloud and haar around North Sea coasts will nudge inland overnight.

Sunday:
Most places dry with plenty of warm sunshine, any low cloud and haar burning back to North Sea coasts where it could linger. Isolated afternoon showers over the hills.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
A fine dry, warm spell of weather with plenty of sunshine, although rain possible in the south later on Wednesday. Haar will affect North Sea coasts at times.
